Lord of the night, Nicolas Roerich

With the entry of the Sun in Aries, the zodiacal tour of this astrological year 2018 – 2019 begins. Aries, as first sign, represents the beginning, the lighting up of the fire, the Will to manifest, the planning thought which seeks expression.

It is the sign by which the Ray of Will and Power reaches our planetary life, aimed at creating an "inspired" form, infused by spirit, and the Will of expressing radiates its electrical energy into the whole kingdoms of nature.

The path in Aries begins on the burning ground of the first impulse which drives the warrior to fight for his goal. Supported in action by Mars, proceeding under the government of Mercury, which guides the mind to farsighted directive action in a more inclusive perspective, transformed into a perfect organization of the Life into form, created by the Uranian Fire.

The quality assigned this year to Aries is "to inspire" in its double meaning of active "to inspire others" and receptive to "be inspired."

What is inspiration? It is the process of passage or descent into the field of consciousness of contents more or less elaborated by the superconscious: artistic, musical inspiration, guidance and assistance of the Self. Sometimes the product comes to consciousness well-formed and complete, other times instead it presents itself in a raw, incomplete state, and requires a work by the conscious self to acquire an adequate form.

In this way the mind comes into contact with aspects of truth to be processed creatively to be guided for a good work. Actually, we affirm that the creativity of human thought holds no limits if an enlightened consciousness with an open mind governs them. It is up to our power and our responsibility to use this faculty with the intelligence of the Heart offered at the Service human evolution.

During the month of Aries 2018, especially in the first phase, Heaven invites us to implement a transformative and innovative synthesis of our idea of Beauty in order to manifest it in a concrete form, keeping the thought focused on an essential and luminous, as thus “inspired” plane. The powerfully expressed fiery energy inspires the choices to be made, the best path to follow and the identification of deep motivations.

For the whole period heaven favours the expression of free authenticity, beyond the masks, beyond the old. It is an opportunity for elevation, which can create tensions and crises, proposing obstacles to deconstruct the crystallization of the old forms.

In the second part of the month, many tensions are loosened and the possibility of creating and manifesting Beauty will be sustained by a transpersonal vision that will find new spaces for realization.

At the beginning of the sign on March 20, in the day dedicated to Mars, symbol of burning will and enthusiasm, Heaven shows Mercury, Venus and Uranus in a wide conjunction. Given that Mercury and Uranus are the esoteric and hierarchical rulers the Aries aura is particularly intense.

Mercury and Venus in the sign remind us of an evolution of the mind, which is willing to be work along with the heart, it is the time to express what comes to us from the soul, as a channel of our individual and loving consciousness.

Mercury calls us to the constructive power of thought, creating the bridge between soul and personality. The inevitable opposition between the pairs of opposites produces that conflict which dispels the illusion that obscures the lower mind.

Venus and Uranus, in large conjunction, emphasize the need to bring beauty into manifestation with new forms.

Initially, the Sun squares Mars and Saturn in Capricorn and after a few days, Mercury will also be in a relation of tension with Saturn in Capricorn, an aspect which favours the development of a

Venus in Taurus, in a flowing relation of Earth with Mars and Pluto, conjuncted in Capricornus, will facilitate to make stable the expression of the value of Beauty with the emphasis given by the courage to operate with Will of Good for the transmutation of matter in all its aspects.

The purifying action of Neptune is ongoing in Pisces. Forming together with Jupiter in Scorpio a fluid triangle with Mars in Capricorn they invite to act in a more impersonal and inclusive way.

Significant transits in the Aries cycle

Following the movements of the fastest planets (Sun, Mercury, Venus, Mars) it can be seen how they are progressively switch on by the slower planets, month by month, forming in turn other fluid or tense relations. So the dance of the planets is created and men can dance with them using these energies for a richer life.
